EXHIBIT A TO PROOF OF CLAIM OF SYNCORA GUARANTEE INC.

Background

1. Syncora Guarantee Inc., formerly known as XL Capital Assurance Inc. ("Syncora"), is a financial guaranty insurance company organized under the laws of the State of New York, with its principal place of business at 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10021.

2. This Proof of Claim is filed pursuant to an order of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York establishing September 22, 2009 as the bar date for the submission of claims against Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. ("Lehman") and its affiliated debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively including Lehman, "Debtors").

3. Syncora filed a proof of claim against Lehman on September 16, 2009, which was assigned number 13909 ("Claim Number 13909"). It has come to Syncora's attention that the official claims register maintained by the Debtors' claims and noticing agent reflects that Claim Number 13909 was filed in the amount of One Million Three-Hundred Thirty-One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty Eight Dollars ($1,331,838.00). This amended proof of claim is submitted to correct this error. The value of Syncora's claim as asserted in Claim Number 13909 and as asserted herein is One Billion Three Hundred Thirty-One Million Eight Hundred and Thirty-Eight Thousand Dollars ($1,331,838,000.00). This amended claim is identical in all other respects to the original proof of claim, Claim Number 13909, submitted on September 16, 2009.

Basis for Claim

4. Pursuant to an Indenture dated as of August 1, 2006 ("Indenture") between GreenPoint Mortgage Funding Trust 2006-HE1 ("Trust"), as Issuer, and U.S. Bank National Association ("Trustee"), as Indenture Trustee, the Trust issued the following two classes of mortgage-backed notes ("Notes"), all of which remain outstanding: (a) $1,331,838,000 in aggregate principal amount of variable-rate Class Ax Notes and (b) $500,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of variable-rate Class Ac Notes. The issuance of the Notes was part of a securitization transaction known as GreenPoint Mortgage Funding Trust 2006-HE1, Home Equity Loan Asset-Backed Notes, Series 2006-HE1 ("Transaction"). The Notes were "backed," or collateralized, by mortgage loans originated by GreenPoint Mortgage Funding, Inc. ("GreenPoint"). A copy of the Indenture, which is voluminous, is available upon request.

5. Pursuant to an Insurance and Indemnity Agreement ("I&I Agreement") dated as of August 28, 2006 among Syncora, Lehman, the Trust and others, Syncora agreed to irrevocably guarantee certain payments of principal and interest on the Class Ax Notes by issuance of an insurance policy. As an inducement to Syncora to enter the I&I Agreement and issue its insurance policy, Lehman made or conveyed various representations, warranties and other assurances about the quality of the mortgage loans that back the Notes and the practices pursuant to which the loans were originated and underwritten. A copy of the I&I Agreement is annexed hereto as Exhibit 1.

6. Pursuant to the Transaction documents, principal and interest payments from the mortgage loans were to provide the cash flow necessary to make the principal and interest payments on the Notes. Syncora's insurance policy required it to make payments to holders of insured Notes to the extent that there was a shortfall of cash flow available from the mortgage loans. Syncora was also liable for payments to maintain parity between the outstanding principal balance of the underlying mortgage loans and the principal balance of the Class Ax Notes in the event that defaults and write-offs of loans caused the loan balance to decline below the Class Ax Note balance.

7. Pursuant to Section 3.03(c) of the I&I Agreement, Lehman agreed to pay to Syncora “any and all charges, fees, costs and expenses that [Syncora] may reasonably pay or incur, including reasonable attorneys’ and accountants’ fees and expenses, in connection with,” among other things, “the enforcement, defense or preservation of any rights in respect of any of the Operative Documents,¹ including defending, monitoring or participating in any litigation or proceeding . . . relating to any of the Operative Documents, any party to any of the Operative Documents (in its capacity as such a party) or the Transaction,” and “any action taken by [Syncora] to cure an event of default (or to mitigate the effect of an event of default) under any of the Related Agreements.”

8. Pursuant to Section 3.04(a) of the I&I Agreement, Lehman agreed “to pay, and to protect, indemnify and save harmless, [Syncora] . . . from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities (including penalties), actions, suits, judgments, demands, damages, costs or expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable fees and expenses of attorneys, consultants and auditors and reasonable costs of investigations) of any nature arising out of or relating to the breach by [Lehman] . . . of any of the representations or warranties contained in Section 2.01 or arising out of or relating to the transactions contemplated by the Operative Documents by reason of,” among other things, “the breach by [Lehman] . . . or any Originator [defined to include GreenPoint] of any representation, warranty or covenant under any of the Operative Documents to which it is a party,” and “any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Offering Document [defined to include the Prospectus Supplement] or the Registration Statement or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.”

9. Pursuant to Section 3.03(d) of the I&I Agreement, Lehman agreed to pay Syncora interest on the amounts described in the preceding two paragraphs—specifically, “any and all amounts described in subsections 3.03(b), 3.03(c) and 3.03(e) and Sections 3.02 and 3.04 from the date such amounts become due or, in the case of subsections 3.02(b) or 3.03(c) or Section 3.04, are incurred or paid by [Syncora] until payment thereof in full (after as well as before judgment), at the Late Payment Rate.”

10. Syncora is entitled to payment and reimbursement from Lehman pursuant to Section 3.03(b) of the I&I Agreement because Syncora has incurred significant expenses, including attorneys’ fees and expert fees, in enforcing, defending and preserving rights under the Operative Documents, including by participating in a litigation that relates to the Transaction. On February 5, 2009 Syncora and CIFG Assurance North America, Inc. joined the Trustee in filing an action (“GreenPoint Action”) against GreenPoint in New York state court. A copy of the complaint in the GreenPoint Action, which is styled U.S. Bank National Association, as Indenture Trustee for the Benefit of the Insurers and Noteholders of GreenPoint Mortgage Funding Trust 2006-HE1, Home Equity Loan Asset-Backed Notes, Series 2006-HE1; Syncora Guarantee Inc., formerly known as XL Capital Assurance Inc., as Controlling Insurer, Note Controlling Party and Class Ax Insurer; and CIFG Assurance North America, Inc., as Class Ac Insurer, v. GreenPoint Mortgage Funding, Inc., Index No. 600352/09 (N.Y. Sup. Ct.), is annexed hereto as Exhibit 2.

11. The plaintiffs in the GreenPoint Action allege, among other things, that GreenPoint pervasively breached its representations and warranties, and related remedial covenants, about the quality of the mortgage loans and the practices pursuant to which the loans were originated and underwritten, and that statements in the Prospectus Supplement about GreenPoint's underwriting practices are therefore false and misleading. In addition, the plaintiffs allege that GreenPoint's pervasive breaches and underwriting failures are reflected in the severe underperformance of the loans and the Transaction as a whole. As of December 31, 2008, the date of the last-available performance statistics prior to the filing of the complaint in the GreenPoint Action, the Transaction had experienced cumulative losses of more than $387 million and nearly 29% of the mortgage loans that back the Notes had been written off or were severely delinquent. These and additional losses to the Transaction in subsequent months have resulted to date in more than $323 million in claims having been submitted to Syncora under its insurance policy for the Class Ax Notes. Future losses to the Transaction will result in Syncora's having to pay millions more. Based on forensic work that Syncora has undertaken with respect to randomly selected loans that are representative of the entire pool of loans in the Transaction, Syncora's total claims payments over the life of the Transaction may approach the full amount of the original aggregate principal balance of the Class Ax Notes.

12. Because GreenPoint, as "Originator," has breached numerous representations, warranties and covenants—and because Lehman, which remade as its own GreenPoint's representations and warranties, has also breached them—and those breaches have caused Syncora to pay claims and incur losses, costs and expenses, and will continue to cause Syncora to pay claims and incur losses, costs and expenses, Syncora is also entitled to payment and indemnification from Lehman pursuant to Section 3.04(a) of the I&I Agreement. And, pursuant to Section 3.03(d) of the I&I Agreement, Syncora is entitled to interest on all amounts sought from Lehman pursuant to either Section 3.03(b) or Section 3.04(a) of the I&I Agreement.

13. In addition, Syncora has claims against Lehman for breach, indemnity, damages and otherwise, in connection with the Transaction arising under the Transaction documents or under applicable law, including (without limitation) state and federal securities laws and the common law.

ARTICLE II REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

Section 2.01. Representations and Warranties of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor. Each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor, in each case with respect to itself, represents and warrants as of the Closing Date, as follows:

(a) Due Organization and Qualification. The Sponsor is a corporation, duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware, the Depositor is a limited liability company, duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of Delaware and the Issuer is a statutory trust duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of Delaware. Each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor is, or shall become, duly qualified to do business, is, or shall be, in good standing and has obtained, or shall obtain, all necessary licenses, permits, charters, registrations and approvals (together, "approvals") necessary for the conduct of its business as currently conducted and as described in the Offering Document and the performance of its obligations under the Operative Documents to which it is a party in each jurisdiction in which the failure to be so qualified or to obtain such approvals would render any Operative Document unenforceable in any respect or would have a material adverse effect upon the Transaction.

(b) Power and Authority. Each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor has all necessary power and authority to conduct its business as currently conducted and as described in the Offering Document, to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Operative Documents to which it is a party and to consummate the Transaction.

(c) Due Authorization. The execution, delivery and performance of the Operative Documents by each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor has been duly authorized by all necessary action and does not require any additional approvals or consents, or other action by or any notice to or filing with any Person, including any governmental entity or any of the stockholders or beneficial owners, as applicable, of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor, which have not previously been obtained or given by the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor.

(d) Noncontravention. The execution and delivery by each of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor of the Operative Documents to which it is a party, the consummation of the Transaction and the satisfaction of the terms and conditions of the Operative Documents do not and will not:

(i) conflict with or result in any breach or violation of any provision of the applicable organizational documents of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor or any law, rule, regulation, order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination or award currently in effect having applicability to the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor or any of their respective material properties, including regulations issued by any administrative agency or other governmental authority having supervisory powers over the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor, which conflict, breach or violation reasonably could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Change;

(ii) constitute a default by Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor under, result in the acceleration of any obligation under, or breach any provision of any loan agreement, mortgage, indenture or other agreement or instrument to which the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor is a party or by which any of their respective properties is or may be bound or affected, which default, acceleration or breach could result in a Material Adverse Change; or

(iii) result in or require the creation of any lien upon or in respect of any assets of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor, which lien could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Change except as otherwise expressly contemplated by the Operative Documents.

(c) Legal Proceedings. There is no action, proceeding or investigation by or before any court, governmental or administrative agency or arbitrator against or affecting the Sponsor (other than as may be disclosed in the Sponsor's financial statements), the Issuer or the Depositor or any of their respective subsidiaries, any properties or rights of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor or any of their respective subsidiaries or any of the Loans pending or, to the Sponsor's, the Issuer's or the Depositor's knowledge after reasonable inquiry, threatened, which, in any case, if decided adversely to the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor or any such subsidiary could result in a Material Adverse Change with respect to the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor.

(f) Valid and Binding Obligations. The Operative Documents (other than the Securities) to which it is a party, when executed and delivered by the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor, respectively, will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and general equitable principles and public policy considerations as to rights of indemnification for violations of federal securities laws. The Notes, when executed, authenticated and delivered in accordance with the Indenture, will be validly issued and outstanding and entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, and the Certificates when executed, authenticated and delivered in accordance with the Trust Agreement, will be validly issued and outstanding and entitled to the benefits of the Trust Agreement. Each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor will not at any time in the future deny that the Operative Documents to which it is a party constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor, as applicable.

(g) Financial Statements. The Financial Statements of the Sponsor, copies of which have been furnished to the Insurer, (i) are, as of the dates and for the periods referred to therein, complete and correct in all material respects, (ii) present fairly the financial condition and results of operations of the Sponsor as of the dates and for the periods indicated and (iii) have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied, except as noted therein (subject as to interim statements to normal year-end adjustments). Since the date of the most recent Financial Statements, there has been no Material Adverse Change in respect of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor. Except as disclosed in the Financial Statements, none of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor is subject to any contingent liabilities or commitments that, individually or in the aggregate, have a material possibility of causing a Material Adverse Change as contemplated by clause (i) of the definition of Material Adverse Change in respect of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor.

(h) Compliance with Law, etc. No practice, procedure or policy employed or proposed to be employed by the Sponsor, the Depositor or the Issuer in the conduct of its business violates any law, regulation, judgment, agreement, order or decree applicable to it which, if enforced, could result in a Material Adverse Change as contemplated by clause (i) of the definition of Material Adverse Change.

(i) Good Title; Absence of Liens or Security Interest. The Issuer is the owner of, and has good and marketable title to, all of the Collateral free and clear of all liens and has full right, power and lawful authority to assign, transfer and pledge the Collateral (and any documents which are a part thereof) and all such substitutions therefor and additions thereto delivered under the Indenture.

(j) Taxes. Each of the Sponsor and the Issuer has filed (or caused to be filed) prior to the date hereof all federal and state tax returns that are required to be filed and has paid all taxes, including any assessments received by it that are not being contested in good faith, to the extent that such taxes have become due, except with respect to any failures to file or pay that, individually or in the aggregate, would not result in a Material Adverse Change as contemplated by clause (i) of the definition with respect to the Sponsor and the Issuer. Any taxes, fees and other governmental charges payable by the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor in connection with the Transaction, the execution and delivery of the Operative Documents and the issuance of the Securities have been paid or shall have been paid at or prior to the Closing Date if such taxes, fees or other governmental charges were due on or prior to the Closing Date.

(k) Accuracy of Information. Neither the Operative Documents nor other material information relating to the Loans, the operations of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor or the financial condition of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor (collectively, the "Documents"), as amended, supplemented or superseded, furnished to the Insurer in writing or in electronic form by the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor contains any statement of a material fact which was untrue or misleading in any material respect when made. Each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor has no knowledge of any circumstances that could reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Change as contemplated by clause (i) of the definition with respect to the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor. Since the furnishing of the Documents, there has been no change nor any development or event involving a prospective change known to the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor that would render any of the Documents untrue or misleading in any material respect. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the information in the Data Tape with respect to each HELOC is true and correct as of the Cut-off Date.

(l) Compliance With Securities Laws. The offer of the Notes complies or shall comply in all material respects with all requirements of law, including all registration and reporting requirements of applicable securities laws. Without limiting the foregoing, the Offering Document does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact and does not omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided, however, that no representation is made with respect to the information in the Offering Document regarding the Insurer set forth under the captions "The Policy" or the financial statements of the Insurer incorporated by reference into the Offering Document, the Servicer Information, the Underwriter Information or the Originator Information. The offer of the Insured Notes has not been and will not be in violation of the Securities Act or any other federal or state securities laws. The Indenture has been qualified under the Trust Indenture Act. Based upon advice of legal counsel, the Trust Agreement is not required to be qualified under the Trust Indenture Act and each of the Issuer and the Trust Estate is not required to be registered as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act.

(m) Operative Documents. Each of the representations and warranties of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor contained in the applicable Operative Documents is true and correct in all material respects and each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor hereby makes each such representation and warranty to, and for the benefit of, the Insurer as if the same were set forth in full herein. Each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor will not at any time in the future deny that the Operative Documents to which it is a party constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor, as applicable.

(n) Solvency; Fraudulent Conveyance. Each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor is solvent and shall not be rendered insolvent by the Transaction and, after giving effect to the Transaction, the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor shall not be left with an unreasonably small amount of capital with which to engage in the ordinary course of its business, and each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor does not intend to incur, or believe that it has incurred, debts beyond its ability to pay as they mature. Each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor does not contemplate the commencement of insolvency, liquidation or consolidation proceedings or the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, conservator, trustee or similar official in respect of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor or any of their respective assets. The amount of consideration being received by the Depositor upon the transfer of the Loans to the Trust constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for ownership interest evidenced by the Loans. The amount of consideration being received by the Issuer upon the sale of the Securities constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the ownership and/or debt interest evidenced by the Securities. The Sponsor is not transferring the Loans to the Depositor, the Depositor is not transferring the Loans to the Issuer, the Issuer is not pledging the Loans to the Indenture Trustee, nor is the Issuer selling the Securities, as provided in the Operative Documents, with any intent to hinder, delay or defraud any of the Sponsor's, the Issuer's or the Depositor's creditors.

(o) Locations of Parties. The Sponsor is a Delaware corporation. The Depositor is a Delaware limited liability company. The Issuer is organized under the laws of Delaware.

(a) Compliance With Agreements and Applicable Laws. Each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor shall comply in all material respects with the terms and conditions of and perform its obligations under the Operative Documents to which it is a party in all cases in which failure to so comply or perform would result in a default thereunder and shall comply with all material requirements of any law, rule or regulation applicable to it.

(b) Corporate Existence. Each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and, subject to Section 2.03(c), the Depositor and their respective successors and permitted assigns shall maintain its corporate or trust existence, as applicable, and shall at all times continue to be duly organized under the laws of their formation and duly qualified and duly authorized (as described in subsections 2.01(a), (b) and (c) hereof) and shall conduct its business in accordance with the terms of its applicable organizational documents.

(c) Other Information: The Sponsor shall furnish or cause to be furnished to the Insurer upon request:

The Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor shall give the Insurer written notice of any such action or, to the best of the knowledge of any of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor, any such failure to act on the earlier of: (i) the date upon which any publicly available filing or release is made with respect to such action or failure to act and (ii) promptly prior to the date of consummation of such action or failure to act. (b) Power and Authority. The Servicer has all necessary power and authority to conduct its business as currently conducted and as described in the Offering Document, to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Operative Documents to which it is a party and to consummate the Transaction.

(e) Servicing of Mortgage Loans. All Mortgage Loans will be serviced in compliance with the Transfer and Servicing Agreement.

(f) Representation regarding Servicer Information. The Servicer Information included in the Offering Document does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact and does not omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(c) Authorization; Approvals; No Conflicts. The issuance of the Policy and the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate proceedings and will not result in any violation of (i) any law, regulation, rule or order applicable to the Insurer, (ii) the Insurer's organizational documents or (iii) any material indenture, contract or other agreement to which the Insurer is a party. No further approvals or filings of any kind, including, without limitation, any further approvals of or further filings with any governmental agency or other governmental authority, or any approval of the Insurer's board of directors or stockholders, are necessary for the Policy and this Insurance Agreement to constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Insurer.

(d) Enforceability. The Policy, when issued, and this Insurance Agreement will each constitute a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Insurer, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally.

(e) Insurer Information. The Insurer Information in the Prospectus Supplement, is limited due only to the fact that the Insurer is not the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 in the transaction described in the Prospectus Supplement and, therefore, does not purport to provide the scope of disclosure required to be included in a prospectus under the Securities Act of 1933, in connection with the public offer and the sale of securities of the Insurer, if Insurer were the registrant. Within such limited scope of disclosure, as of the date of the Prospectus Supplement and as of the Closing Date, the Insurer Information does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(f) No Litigation. There are no actions, suits, proceedings or investigations pending or, to the best of the Insurer's knowledge, threatened against it at law or in equity or before or by any court, governmental agency, board or commission or any arbitrator which would cause a Material Adverse Change.

If the Insurer is requested or required (by oral questions, interrogatories, requests for information or documents subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process) to disclose information provided to the Insurer pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement or the issuance of the Policy or otherwise related to the Transaction, including any information of which it becomes aware through such inspections or discussions, the Insurer will promptly notify the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor of such request(s) so that the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor may seek an appropriate protective order and/or waive the Insurer's compliance with the provisions of this Insurance Agreement. If, in the absence of a protective order or the receipt of a waiver hereunder, the Insurer is, nonetheless, in the opinion of its counsel (which shall be delivered to the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor), compelled to disclose such information to any tribunal or else stand liable for contempt or suffer other censure or significant penalty, the Insurer may disclose such information to such tribunal that the Insurer is compelled to disclose; provided, however, that a copy of all information disclosed is provided to the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor promptly upon such disclosure.

(h) Compliance with Law, Etc. No practice, procedure or policy employed, or proposed to be employed, by the Insurer in the conduct of its business violates any law, regulation, judgment, agreement, order or decree applicable to the Insurer that, if enforced, could result in a Material Adverse Change with respect to the Insurer.

(i) Consent to Incorporation of Insurer Financial Statements. As of the date of the Prospectus Supplement and thereafter through the Incorporation Termination Date, the Insurer agrees that all consolidated financial statements of XL Capital Assurance Inc. and its subsidiaries included in documents filed by its direct or indirect parent with the SEC pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act, may be incorporated by reference into any Form 8-K, Form 10-D or Form 10-K filed by the Depositor, solely to the extent required to comply with the requirements of Item 1114(b)(2) of Regulation AB. It is understood and agreed that, to the extent any consent letter of the Insurer's accountants is required by the Depositor in connection with such filing in order to comply with the requirements of Regulation AB, the Insurer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such consent letter on behalf of the Depositor, provided that the fees and expenses payable in respect thereof shall be paid by the Seller upon demand.

(j) Eligibility for Incorporation by Reference. As of the date of the Prospectus Supplement and thereafter through the Incorporation Termination Date, the Insurer represents and warrants that XL Capital Ltd. or Security Capital Assurance Ltd, as applicable, has filed all reports and other materials required to be filed by it pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act during the 12 months preceding the date of the Prospectus Supplement (or such shorter period as such party was required to file reports under the Securities Exchange Act). If this representation is breached as of any date after the date of the Free Writing Prospectus or Prospectus Supplement and prior to the Incorporation Termination Date, the sole result of such breach shall be that the Insurer shall be required to furnish its Insurer Financial Statements thereafter pursuant to Section 4(k) below until the earlier of (i) the Incorporation Termination Date and (ii) the date on which the representation and warranty in this Section 4(j) shall be true again.

(k) Furnishing of Insurer Financial Statements. If the reports filed by the Insurer or its parent no longer include (or no longer properly incorporate by reference) the Insurer Financial Statements, or if the representation in Section 4(i) is no longer true, as soon as reasonably practicable after the release of its unaudited financial statements for each of the March, June and September fiscal quarters and the release of its audited financial statements for any fiscal year, the Insurer shall furnish to the Depositor such unaudited or audited financial statements, as appropriate for the related period meeting the requirements of Item 1114(b)(2)(ii) of Regulation AB. Any Insurer Financial Statements shall be delivered in electronic form via electronic mail to such address that has been designated by the Depositor and provided in writing to the Insurer. If applicable, the Insurer shall continue to furnish such quarterly and annual financial statements as set forth above until the Incorporation Termination Date.

(l) Financial Information. As of the date of the Free Writing Prospectus and the Prospectus Supplement and as of the Closing Date, in the case of financial statements of the Insurer incorporated by reference into the Prospectus Supplement on its date, and as of the date any subsequent financial statements are incorporated by reference into the Prospectus Supplement or furnished to the Depositor pursuant to Section 4(k) above, such financial statements of the Insurer incorporated by reference in the Prospectus Supplement (collectively, the "Insurer Financial Statements"), (a) fairly present in all material respects the financial condition of the Insurer as of the dates referenced therein and for the periods covered by such statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied, and, since the date of the last such financial statements there has been no material change in such financial condition of the Insurer which would materially and adversely affect its ability to perform its obligations under the Policy and (b) comply with Item 1114(b)(2)(ii) of Regulation AB.

(m) Affiliations/Item 1119 Information. Upon receipt of an officer's certificate of the Depositor on or prior to January 15 of each calendar year that occurs prior to the Incorporation Termination Date, which officer's certificate furnishes the Insurer with a list of the parties with whom affiliations or relationships must be disclosed pursuant to Item 1119 of Regulation AB, the Insurer shall provide to the Depositor, to the extent actually known and material, a description of any affiliation or relationship required to be disclosed under Item 1119 of Regulation AB between the Insurer and any of the parties listed in Items 1119(a)(1)-(6) of Regulation AB that develops following the date hereof, no later than fifteen calendar days prior to the date the Depositor is required to file its Form 10-K disclosing such affiliation.

(n) Assurances to Provide Additional Information. Until the Incorporation Termination Date, the Insurer agrees to comply with all reasonable requests of the Depositor for the delivery of such additional information as may be necessary for the Depositor to comply with Item 1114, so long as such information is available to the Insurer and not otherwise available to the Depositor.

(o) No Affiliations. As of the date hereof, to the Insurer's actual knowledge, the Insurer is not an affiliate (as defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act) of the 1119 Parties without regard to affiliations by common control with the Insurer.

(p) Policy Exempt from Registration. The Policy is exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

(d) Opinions of Counsel. The Insurer shall have received all opinions of counsel addressed to any of Moody's, S&P, the Indenture Trustee, the Owner Trustee, the Sponsor, the Issuer, the Depositor and the Underwriter, in respect of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor or any other parties to the Operative Documents and the Transaction dated the Closing Date in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Insurer, addressed to the Insurer and addressing such matters as the Insurer may reasonably request, and the counsel providing each such opinion shall have been instructed by its client to deliver such opinion to the addressees thereof;

(e) No Litigation, Etc. No suit, action or other proceeding, investigation or injunction, or final judgment relating thereto, shall be pending or threatened before any court, governmental or administrative agency or arbitrator in which it is sought to restrain or prohibit or to obtain damages or other relief in connection with any of the Operative Documents or the consummation of the Transaction;

(f) Legality. No statute, rule, regulation or order shall have been enacted, entered or deemed applicable by any government or governmental or administrative agency or court that would make the Transaction illegal or otherwise prevent the consummation thereof;

(g) Satisfaction of Conditions of the Underwriting Agreement. All conditions in the Underwriting Agreement relating to the Underwriter's obligation, if any, to purchase the Notes shall have been satisfied, without taking into account any waiver by the Underwriter of any condition unless such waiver has been approved by the Insurer. The Insurer shall have received copies of each of the documents, and shall be entitled to rely on each of the documents, required to be delivered to the Underwriter pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement;

(h) Issuance of Ratings. The Insurer shall have received confirmation that the risk secured by the Policy constitutes at least a "A" risk by S&P and a "A2" risk by Moody's and that the Notes, when issued, will be rated "AAA" by S&P and "Aaa" by Moody's;

(i) No Default. No Default or Event of Default shall have occurred;

(j) Satisfactory Documentation. The Insurer and its counsel shall have reasonably determined that all documents, certificates and opinions to be delivered in connection with the Securities conform to the terms of the Indenture, the Trust Agreement, the Registration Statement, the Offering Document and this Insurance Agreement; and

Section 3.02. Payment of Fees and Premium.

(a) Rating Agency Fees. The Sponsor will pay, or cause the Issuer to pay, the initial fees of the Rating Agencies with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby in full on the Closing Date, or otherwise provided for to the satisfaction of Insurer. All periodic and subsequent fees of the Rating Agencies with respect to, and directly allocable to, the Certificates shall be for the account of, and shall be billed to, the Seller. Under no circumstances shall the Insurer have any obligation to pay any fees of the Rating Agencies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the fees for any other rating agency shall be paid by the party requesting such other agency's rating, unless such other agency is a substitute for any of the Rating Agencies in the event that any of the Rating Agencies is no longer rating the Certificates, in which case the cost for such agency shall be paid by the Seller.

(b) Legal, Accounting and Due Diligence Fees. The Sponsor shall pay or cause to be paid to the Insurer, at the Closing Date, legal fees, due diligence expenses and accounting fees incurred by the Insurer in connection with the issuance of the Policy amounts and as described in the Premium Letter.

(c) Premium. In consideration of the issuance by the Insurer of the Policy, the Insurer shall be paid the Premium in Premium Amounts in accordance with the terms of the Premium Letter and Section 3.02 of the Indenture. The Premium Amounts paid hereunder and pursuant to the Operative Documents and the Premium Letter shall be nonrefundable without regard to whether the Insurer makes any payment under the Policy or any other circumstances relating to the Notes or provision being made for payment of the Notes prior to maturity. All payments of Premium Amounts shall be made by wire transfer to an account designated from time to time by the Insurer by written notice to the Indenture Trustee. Although the Premium is fully earned by the Insurer as of the date of issuance, the Premium shall be payable in periodic installments of Premium Amounts as provided in the Premium Letter. The Premium Amount for each period shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the related period for which the premium is being paid divided by 360.

Section 3.03. Reimbursement Obligation.

(a) As and when due in accordance with and from the funds specified in Section 3.02 (a) of the Indenture, the Insurer shall be entitled to reimbursement for any payment made by the Insurer under the Policy (including any portion of any amounts that are payable with Insured Amounts under the Policy paid as a result of the nonpayment of Premium Amounts to the Insurer), which reimbursement shall be due and payable on the date that any amount is paid thereunder, in an amount equal to the amount to be so paid and all amounts previously paid that remain unreimbursed, together with interest on any and all such amounts remaining unreimbursed (to the extent permitted by law, if in respect of any unreimbursed amounts representing interest) from the date such amounts became due until paid in full (after as well as before judgment), at a rate of interest equal to the Late Payment Rate.

(b) Anything in this Insurance Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, the Sponsor agrees to pay to the Insurer, and the Insurer shall be entitled to reimbursement from the Sponsor and shall have full recourse against the Sponsor for, (i) any payment made under the Policy arising as a result of the Sponsor's failure to substitute for or deposit an amount in respect of any defective HELOC as required pursuant to Section 7 of the Sale Agreement, together with interest on any and all such amounts remaining unreimbursed (to the extent permitted by law, if in respect of any such unreimbursed amounts representing interest) from the date such amounts became due until paid in full (after as well as before judgment), at a rate of interest equal to the Late Payment Rate, and (ii) any payment made under the Policy arising as a result of the Servicer's or the Sponsor's failure to pay or deposit any amount required to be paid or deposited pursuant to the Operative Documents, together with interest on any and all such amounts remaining unreimbursed (to the extent permitted by law, if in respect to any such unreimbursed amounts representing interest) from the date such amounts became due until paid in full (after as well as before judgment), at a rate of interest equal to the Late Payment Rate.

(c) The Sponsor agrees to pay to the Insurer any and all charges, fees, costs and expenses that the Insurer may reasonably pay or incur, including reasonable attorneys' and accountants' fees and expenses, in connection with (i) in the event of payments under the Policy, any accounts established to facilitate payments under the Policy to the extent the Insurer has not been immediately reimbursed on the date that any amount is paid by the Insurer under the Policy; (ii) the enforcement, defense or preservation of any rights in respect of any of the Operative Documents, including defending, monitoring or participating in any litigation or proceeding (including any insolvency proceeding in respect of any Transaction participant or any affiliate thereof) relating to any of the Operative Documents, any party to any of the Operative Documents (in its capacity as such a party) or the Transaction; (iii) the foreclosure against, sale or other disposition of any collateral securing any obligations under any of the Related Agreements, or pursuit of any other remedies under any of the Related Agreements, to the extent such costs and expenses are not recovered from such foreclosure, sale or other disposition; (iv) any amendment, waiver or other action with respect to, or related to, any Operative Document, whether or not executed or completed or (v) any action taken by the Insurer to cure an event of default (or to mitigate the effect of an event of default) under any of the Related Agreements. Provided that three Business Days written notice of the intended payment or incurrence shall have been given to the Sponsor by the Insurer, such reimbursement shall be due on the dates on which such charges, fees, costs or expenses are paid or incurred by the Insurer.

(d) The Sponsor agrees to pay to the Insurer interest (without duplication) on any and all amounts described in subsections 3.03(b), 3.03(c) and 3.03(e) and Sections 3.02 and 3.04 from the date such amounts become due or, in the case of subsections 3.02(b) or 3.03(c) or Section 3.04, are incurred or paid by the Insurer until payment thereof in full (after as well as before judgment), at the Late Payment Rate.

(e) The Sponsor agrees to pay to the Insurer as follows: any payments made by the Insurer on behalf of, or advanced to, the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor, other than any payments made by the Insurer pursuant to the terms of the Policy (except as otherwise provided in Section 3.03(b)), on the date any such payment is made or advanced by the Insurer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the Insurer have any recourse under this subsection against the Sponsor or the Depositor with respect to any payments the Insurer has made in respect of principal or interest distributions on the Insured Notes.

(f) The Insurer shall have no right to set-off payments to be made under the Policy against payments to be made to the Insurer by the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor (or any person or organization acting on their behalf), the Trust, the Owner Trustee, the Indenture Trustee or any Noteholder or any affiliate, officer or director of any of them.

Section 3.04. Indemnification.

(a) In addition to any and all of the Insurer's rights of reimbursement, indemnification, subrogation and to any other rights of the Insurer pursuant hereto or under law or in equity, the Sponsor agrees on behalf of itself, and with respect to the Depositor and the Issuer solely with respect to any representation and warranty made by the Depositor or the Issuer, and the Depositor and the Issuer, agree, in each case with respect to itself, to pay, and to protect, indemnify and save harmless, the Insurer and its officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents and each Person, if any, who controls the Insurer within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Securities Exchange Act, from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities (including penalties), actions, suits, judgments, demands, damages, costs or expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable fees and expenses of attorneys, consultants and auditors and reasonable costs of investigations) of any nature arising out of or relating to the breach by the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor, as applicable, of any of the representations or warranties contained in Section 2.01 or arising out of or relating to the transactions contemplated by the Operative Documents by reason of:

(i) any statement, omission or action on its part (other than of or by the Insurer) in connection with the offering, issuance or delivery of the Securities by the Sponsor, the Depositor, the Owner Trustee or the Indenture Trustee;

(ii) the misfeasance or malfeasance of, or negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct or theft committed by, any director, officer, employee or agent of the Sponsor, the Depositor, the Issuer, the Owner Trustee or the Indenture Trustee in connection with any Transaction arising from or relating to the Operative Documents;

(iii) the violation or alleged violation by the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor of any domestic or foreign law, rule or regulation, or any judgment, order or decree applicable to it;

(iv) the breach by the Sponsor, the Issuer, the Depositor or any Originator of any representation, warranty or covenant under any of the Operative Documents to which it is a party or the occurrence, in respect of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor, under any of the Operative Documents of any "event of default" or any event which, with the giving of notice or the lapse of time or both, would constitute any "event of default"; or

(v) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Offering Document or the Registration Statement or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, except insofar as such claims, losses, liabilities (including penalties), actions, suits, judgments, demands, damages, costs or expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of attorneys, consultants and auditors and reasonable costs of investigations) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or omission or alleged omission of a material fact in information included in the Offering Document or the Registration Statement and furnished by or approved by the Insurer in writing expressly for use therein (all such information so furnished being referred to herein as "Insurer Information"), (it being understood that, in respect of the initial Offering Document which relates to the Notes and the Registration Statement, the Insurer Information is limited to the information with respect to the Insurer included under the caption "The Policy--The Note Insurer" and any Insurer Financial Statements of the Insurer included in the Free Writing Prospectus or incorporated by reference into the Prospectus Supplement, and shall include any information in any amendment or supplement to the Offering Document or registration statement furnished by the Insurer in writing expressly for use therein that amends or supplements such information), such information constitutes Servicer Information or such information constitutes Underwriter Information as such term is defined in the Indemnification Agreement.

(b) In addition to any and all of the Insurer's rights of reimbursement, indemnification, subrogation and to any other rights of the Insurer pursuant hereto or under law or in equity, the Servicer agrees to pay, and to protect, indemnify and save harmless, the Insurer and its officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents and each Person, if any, who controls the Insurer within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Securities Exchange Act, from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities (including penalties), actions, suits, judgments, demands, damages, costs or expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable fees and expenses of attorneys, consultants and auditors and reasonable costs of investigations) of any nature arising out of or relating to the breach by the Servicer of any of the representations or warranties contained in Section 2.01 or arising out of or relating to the transactions contemplated by the Operative Documents by reason of:

(i) the misfeasance or malfeasance of, or negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct or theft committed by, any director, officer, employee or agent of the Servicer in connection with any Transaction arising from or relating to the Operative Documents;

(ii) the violation or alleged violation by the Servicer of any domestic or foreign law, rule or regulation, or any judgment, order or decree applicable to it;

(iii) the breach by the Servicer of any representation, warranty or covenant under any of the Operative Documents to which it is a party or the occurrence, in respect of the Servicer under any of the Operative Documents of any "event of default" or any event which, with the giving of notice or the lapse of time or both, would constitute any "event of default" or;

(iv) any losses resulting from any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Offering Documents or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, to the extent that such claims, losses, liabilities (including penalties), actions, suits, judgments, demands, damages, costs or expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of attorneys, consultants and auditors and reasonable costs of investigations) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or omission or alleged omission of a material fact contained in the Servicer Information.

(c) The Insurer agrees to pay, and to protect, indemnify and save harmless, the Sponsor, the Issuer, the Servicer, the Depositor, the Servicer and their respective officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents and each Person, if any, who controls the Sponsor, the Issuer, the Servicer and the Depositor within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Securities Exchange Act from and against, any and all claims, losses, liabilities (including penalties), actions, suits, judgments, demands, damages, costs or expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of attorneys, consultants and auditors and reasonable costs of investigations) of any nature arising out of or by reason of (i) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the Insurer Information or any omission or alleged omission to state in the Insurer Information a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, (ii) any failure of the Insurer to make a payment required to be made under the Policy or (iii) a breach of any of the representations and warranties of the Insurer contained in Section 2.05.

(d) If any action or proceeding (including any governmental investigation) shall be brought or asserted against any Person (individually, an "Indemnified Party" and, collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") in respect of which the indemnity provided in Section 3.04(a) or (b) may be sought from the Sponsor, the Issuer, the Depositor, or the Servicer on the one hand, or the Insurer, on the other (each, an "Indemnifying Party") hereunder, each such Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Indemnifying Party in writing, and the Indemnifying Party shall assume the defense thereof, including the employment of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party and the payment of all expenses. The omission so to notify the Indemnifying Party will not relieve it from any liability which it may have to any Indemnified Party except to the extent the Indemnifying Party is prejudiced thereby. The Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action and to participate in the defense thereof at the expense of the Indemnified Party; provided, however, that the fees and expenses of such separate counsel shall be at the expense of the Indemnifying Party if (i) the Indemnifying Party has agreed to pay such fees and expenses, (ii) the Indemnifying Party shall have failed within a reasonable period of time to assume the defense of such action or proceeding and employ counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party in any such action or proceeding or (iii) the named parties to any such action or proceeding (including any impleaded parties) include both the Indemnified Party and the Indemnifying Party, and the Indemnified Party shall have been advised by counsel that there may be one or more legal defenses available to it which are different from or additional to those available to the Indemnifying Party (in which case, if the Indemnified Party notifies the Indemnifying Party in writing that it elects to employ separate counsel at the expense of the Indemnifying Party, the Indemnifying Party shall not have the right to assume the defense of such action or proceeding on behalf of such Indemnified Party, it being understood, however, that the Indemnifying Party shall not, in connection with any one such action or proceeding or separate but substantially similar or related actions or proceedings in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances, be liable for the reasonable fees and expenses of more than one separate firm of attorneys at any time (in addition to local counsel) for the Indemnified Parties, which firm shall be designated in writing by the Indemnified Party and shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnifying Party). The Indemnifying Party shall not be liable for any settlement of any such action or proceeding effected without its written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, but, if settled with its written consent, or if there is a final judgment for the plaintiff in any such action or proceeding with respect to which the Indemnifying Party shall have received notice in accordance with this subsection (c), the Indemnifying Party agrees to indemnify and hold the Indemnified Parties harmless from and against any loss or liability by reason of such settlement or judgment.

(e) To provide for just and equitable contribution if the indemnification provided by the Indemnifying Party is determined to be unavailable or insufficient to hold harmless any Indemnified Party (other than due to application of this Section), each Indemnifying Party shall contribute to the losses incurred by the Indemnified Party on the basis of the relative fault of the Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and the Indemnified Party, on the other hand; provided, however, that no party who is guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who is not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

(f) The relative fault of each Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and each Indemnified Party on the other, shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the breach of, or alleged breach of, any of its representations and warranties set forth are within the control of the Indemnifying Party or the Indemnified Party, and the parties relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such breach.

Section 3.05. Payment Procedure. In the event of any payment by the Insurer, the Indenture Trustee, the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor agree to accept the voucher or other evidence of payment as prima facie evidence of the propriety thereof and the liability, if any, described in Section 3.03 therefor to the Insurer. All payments to be made to the Insurer under this Insurance Agreement shall be made to the Insurer in lawful currency of the United States of America in immediately available funds at the notice address for the Insurer as specified in the Indenture (except as otherwise specified in Section 3.02(c)) on the date when due or as the Insurer shall otherwise direct by written notice to the other parties hereto. In the event that the date of any payment to the Insurer or the expiration of any time period hereunder occurs on a day that is not a Business Day, then such payment or expiration of time period shall be made or occur on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if such payment was made or time period expired on the scheduled date of payment or expiration date.

Section 3.06. [RESERVED].

Section 3.07. Subrogation. Subject only to the priority of payment provisions of the Indenture and not in limitation of the Insurer's equitable right of subrogation, the parties hereto acknowledge that, to the extent of any payment made by the Insurer pursuant to the Policy for which the Insurer has not been reimbursed, the Insurer is to be fully subrogated to the extent of such payment and any additional interest due on any late payment, to the rights of the Holders of the Notes to any moneys paid or payable in respect of the Notes under the Operative Documents or otherwise. The parties hereto agree to such subrogation and, further, agree to execute such instruments and to take such actions as, in the sole judgment of the Insurer, are necessary to evidence such subrogation and to perfect the rights of the Insurer to receive any moneys paid or payable in respect of the Notes under the Operative Documents or otherwise.

Section 3.08. Deductions. All payments made to the Insurer in respect of this Article III shall be made without any deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax, levy, impost, duty, charge, assessment or fee of any nature unless such deduction or withholding is required by applicable law, as modified by practice of any relevant governmental revenue authority, then in effect. If a payor is required to deduct or withhold, then such payor shall (a) promptly notify the Insurer of such requirement, (b) pay to the Insurer, in addition to the amount to which the Insurer is otherwise entitled, such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that the net amount actually received by the Insurer (free and clear of any taxes, whether assessed against the payor or the Insurer) will equal the full amount the Insurer would have received had no such deduction or withholding been required and (c) pay to the relevant authorities the full amount required to be deducted or withheld (including the full amount required to be deducted or withheld from any additional amount paid to the Insurer pursuant to foregoing clause (b)).

ARTICLE IV FURTHER AGREEMENTS

Section 4.01. Effective Date; Term of the Insurance Agreement. This Insurance Agreement shall take effect on the Closing Date and shall remain in effect until the later of (a) such time as the Insurer is no longer subject to a claim under the Policy and the Policy shall have been surrendered to the Insurer for cancellation and (b) all amounts payable to the Insurer by the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor hereunder or from any other source hereunder or under the Operative Documents or the Policy and all amounts payable under the Insured Notes have been paid in full; provided, however, that the provisions of Sections 3.02, 3.03 and 3.04 hereof shall survive any termination of this Insurance Agreement.

Section 4.02. Further Assurances and Corrective Instruments.

(a) Except at such times as a default in payment under the Policy shall exist or shall have occurred, none of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor shall grant any waiver of rights under any of the Operative Documents to which any of them is a party without the prior written consent of the Insurer, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and any such waiver without prior written consent of the Insurer shall be null and void and of no force or effect.

(b) To the extent permitted by law, each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor agrees that it will, from time to time, following good faith negotiations in connection therewith, execute, acknowledge and deliver, or cause to be executed, acknowledged and delivered, such supplements hereto and such further instruments as the Insurer may reasonably request and as may be required in the Insurer's reasonable judgment to effectuate the intention of or facilitate the performance of this Insurance Agreement.

Section 4.03. Obligations Absolute.

(a) The obligations of the Sponsor, the Issuer, the Depositor and the Servicer hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional and shall be paid or performed strictly in accordance with this Insurance Agreement under all circumstances irrespective of:

(i) any lack of validity or enforceability of, or any amendment or other modifications of, or waiver, with respect to any of the Operative Documents or the Securities that have not been approved by the Insurer;

(ii) any exchange or release of any other obligations hereunder;

(iii) the existence of any claim, setoff, defense, reduction, abatement or other right that the Sponsor, the Issuer, the Depositor or the Servicer may have at any time against the Insurer or any other Person;

(iv) any document presented in connection with the Policy proving to be forged, fraudulent, invalid or insufficient in any respect or any statement therein being untrue or inaccurate in any respect;

(v) any payment by the Insurer under the Policy against presentation of a certificate or other document that does not strictly comply with terms of the Policy;

(vi) any failure of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor to receive the proceeds from the sale of the Securities;

(vii) any other circumstances, other than payment in full, that might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or discharge of, the Sponsor, the Issuer, the Depositor or the Servicer in respect of any Operative Document;

(viii) the bankruptcy or insolvency of the Insurer or any other party;

(ix) any default or alleged default of the Insurer under the Policy; or

(x) the inaccuracy or alleged inaccuracy of any notice or certificate upon which a claim under the Policy is based.

(b) The Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor and any and all others who are now or may become liable for all or part of the obligations of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor under this Insurance Agreement renounce the right to assert as a defense to the performance of their respective obligations each of the following: (i) to the extent permitted by law, any and all redemption and exemption rights and the benefit of all valuation and appraisement privileges against the indebtedness and obligations evidenced by any Operative Document or by any extension or renewal thereof; (ii) presentment and demand for payment, notices of nonpayment and of dishonor, protest of dishonor and notice of protest; (iii) all notices in connection with the delivery and acceptance hereof and all other notices in connection with the performance, default or enforcement of any payment hereunder, except as required by the Operative Documents; (iv) all rights of abatement, diminution, postponement or deduction, or to any defense other than payment, or to any right of setoff or recoupment arising out of any breach under any of the Operative Documents, by any party thereto or any beneficiary thereof, or out of any obligation at any time owing to the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor; and (v) agree that its liabilities hereunder shall be unconditional and without regard to any set-off, counterclaim or the liability of any other Person for the payment hereof; (vi) agree that any consent, waiver or forbearance hereunder with respect to an event shall operate only for such event and not for any subsequent event; (vii) consent to any and all extensions of time that may be granted by the Insurer with respect to any payment hereunder or other provisions hereof and to the release of any security at any time given for any payment hereunder, or any part thereof, with or without substitution, and to the release of any Person or entity liable for any such payment; and (viii) consent to the addition of any and all other makers, endorsers, guarantors and other obligors for any payment hereunder, and to the acceptance of any and all other security for any payment hereunder, and agree that the addition of any such obligors or security shall not affect the liability of the parties hereto for any payment hereunder.

(c) The Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor and any and all others who are now or may become liable for all or part of the obligations of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor under this Insurance Agreement agree to be bound by this Insurance Agreement and (i) agree that any consent, waiver or forbearance hereunder with respect to an event shall operate only for such event and not for any subsequent event; (ii) consent to any and all extensions of time that may be granted by the Insurer with respect to any payment hereunder or other provisions hereof and to the release of any security at any time given for any payment hereunder, or any part thereof, with or without substitution, and to the release of any Person or entity liable for any such payment; and (iii) consent to the addition of any and all other makers, endorsers, guarantors and other obligors for any payment hereunder, and to the acceptance of any and all other security for any payment hereunder, and agree that the addition of any such obligors or security shall not affect the liability of the parties hereto for any payment hereunder.

(d) Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor from pursuing any rights or remedies it may have against any Person in a separate legal proceeding.

Section 4.04. Assignments; Reinsurance; Third-Party Rights.

(a) This Insurance Agreement shall be a continuing obligation of the parties hereto and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Each of the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor and the Servicer may not assign its rights under this Insurance Agreement, or delegate any of its duties hereunder, without the prior written consent of the Insurer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any assignments made in violation of this Insurance Agreement shall be null and void.

(b) The Insurer shall have the right to give participations in its rights under this Insurance Agreement and to enter into contracts of reinsurance with respect to the Policy upon such terms and conditions as the Insurer may in its discretion determine; provided, however, that no such participation or reinsurance agreement or arrangement shall relieve the Insurer of any of its obligations hereunder or under the Policy, nor shall the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor be required to deal directly with any such parties.

(c) In addition, the Insurer shall be entitled to assign or pledge to any bank or other lender providing liquidity or credit with respect to the Transaction or the obligations of the Insurer in connection therewith any rights of the Insurer under the Operative Documents or with respect to any real or personal property or other interests pledged to the Insurer, or in which the Insurer has a security interest, in connection with the Transaction; provided that the Insurer shall notify the Sponsor in writing upon any such assignment.

(d) Except as provided herein with respect to participants and reinsurers, nothing in this Insurance Agreement shall confer any right, remedy or claim, express or implied, upon any Person, including, particularly, any Holder, other than the Insurer against the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor, or the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor against the Insurer and all the terms, covenants, conditions, promises and agreements contained herein shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties hereto and their successors and permitted assigns. Neither the Indenture Trustee nor any Holder shall have any right to payment from any Premiums paid or payable hereunder or under the Indenture or from any amounts paid by the Sponsor pursuant to Sections 3.02 or 3.03.

Section 4.05. Liability of the Insurer. Neither the Insurer nor any of its officers, directors or employees shall be liable or responsible for: (a) the use that may be made of the Policy by the Indenture Trustee or for any acts or omissions of the Indenture Trustee in connection therewith; (b) the validity, sufficiency, accuracy or genuineness of documents delivered to the Insurer in connection with any claim under the Policy, or of any signatures thereon, even if such documents or signatures should in fact prove to be in any or all respects invalid, insufficient, fraudulent or forged (unless the Insurer shall have actual knowledge thereof) or (c) any acts or omissions of the Servicer, the Issuer, the Depositor, the Indenture Trustee or the Owner Trustee in connection with the Transaction or the Operative Documents to which it is a party. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, the Insurer may accept documents that appear on their face to be in order, without responsibility for further investigation.

ARTICLE V DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

Section 5.01. Defaults. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute an Event of Default hereunder:

- (a) A demand for payment shall be made under the Policy;
- (b) Any representation or warranty made by the Servicer, the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor hereunder or under the Operative Documents, or in any certificate furnished hereunder or under the Operative Documents, shall prove to be untrue or incomplete in any material respect, unless remedied under the Operative Documents;
- (c) (i) the Servicer, the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor shall fail to pay when due any amount payable by the Servicer, the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor hereunder or (ii) a legislative body has enacted any law that declares or a court of competent jurisdiction shall find or rule that this Insurance Agreement or any other Operative Document is not valid and binding on the Servicer, the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor, provided that, with respect to any law or judicial action within the scope of this clause (ii), the Servicer, the Sponsor, the Issuer and the Depositor shall have 30 days to reinstate the binding effect of this Insurance Agreement or any other Operative Document; the Insurer agrees to take such actions as may be reasonably requested of it to facilitate the reinstatement of such binding effect;

(d) The occurrence and continuance of an "event of default" or "Event of Servicer Termination" under any Operative Document; provided, however, that any failure to maintain a perfected first lien security interest in any of the Collateral shall constitute an Event of Default hereunder;

(e) Any failure on the part of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor duly to observe or perform in any material respect any other of the covenants or agreements on the part of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor contained in this Insurance Agreement which continues unremedied for a period of 30 days after the date on which written notice of such failure, requiring the same to be remedied, shall have been given to the Sponsor by the Insurer (with a copy to the Indenture Trustee);

(f) A decree or order of a court or agency or supervisory authority having jurisdiction in the premises in an involuntary case under any present or future federal or state bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law or the appointment of a conservator or receiver or liquidator or other similar official in any bankruptcy, insolvency, readjustment of debt, marshalling of assets and liabilities or similar proceedings, or for the winding-up or liquidation of its affairs, shall have been entered against the Sponsor or the Depositor and such decree or order shall have remained in force undischarged or unstayed for a period of 90 consecutive days;

(g) The Sponsor or the Depositor shall consent to the appointment of a conservator or receiver or liquidator or other similar official in any bankruptcy, insolvency, readjustment of debt, marshalling of assets and liabilities or similar proceedings of or relating to the Sponsor or the Depositor or of or relating to all or substantially all of their respective property;

(h) The Sponsor or the Depositor shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, file a petition to take advantage of or otherwise voluntarily commence a case or proceeding under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar statute, make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors or voluntarily suspend payment of its obligations; or

(i) The Issuer shall become subject to an entity level tax or to registration as an investment company under the Investment Company Act.

Section 5.02. Remedies; No Remedy Exclusive.

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and so long as no Note Insurer Default shall have occurred and shall have continued beyond any period of cure applicable thereto, the Insurer may exercise any one or more of the rights and remedies set forth below:

(i) declare all indebtedness of every type or description then owed by the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor to the Insurer with respect to this Greenpoint Mortgage Funding Trust 2006-HE1, Home Equity Loan Asset-Backed Notes transaction to be immediately due and payable, and the same shall thereupon be immediately due and payable;

(ii) exercise any rights and remedies under the Trust Agreement in accordance with the terms thereof or direct the Owner Trustee to exercise such remedies in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement;

(iii) exercise any rights and remedies under the Indenture in accordance with the terms thereof or direct the Indenture Trustee to exercise such remedies in accordance with the terms of the Indenture;

(iv) exercise any rights and remedies under the Transfer and Servicing Agreement in accordance with the terms thereof or direct the Servicer to exercise such remedies in accordance with the terms of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement; or

(v) take whatever action at law or in equity as may appear necessary or desirable in its judgment to collect the amounts, if any, then due under this Insurance Agreement or any other Operative Document or to enforce performance and observance of any obligation, agreement or covenant of the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor under this Insurance Agreement or any other Operative Documents.

Notwithstanding that a Note Insurer has occurred and has continued beyond the period of cure applicable thereto, the Insurer shall be entitled to exercise all rights and remedies with respect to any funds owed to the Insurer before the occurrence of the Credit Enhancer Default by the Sponsor, the Issuer or the Depositor pursuant to this Agreement or the Policy.

(b) Unless otherwise expressly provided, no remedy herein conferred or reserved is intended to be exclusive of any other available remedy, but each remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to other remedies given under this Insurance Agreement, the Indenture or existing at law or in equity. No delay or omission to exercise any right or power accruing under this Insurance Agreement or the Indenture upon the happening of any event set forth in Section 5.01 shall impair any such right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver thereof, but any such right and power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient. In order to entitle the Insurer to exercise any remedy reserved to the Insurer in this Article, it shall not be necessary to give any notice, other than such notice as may be required by this Article.

Section 5.03. Waivers.

(a) No failure by the Insurer to exercise, and no delay by the Insurer in exercising, any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. The exercise by the Insurer of any right hereunder shall not preclude the exercise of any other right, and the remedies provided herein to the Insurer are declared in every case to be cumulative and not exclusive of any remedies provided by law or equity.

(b) The Insurer shall have the right, to be exercised in its complete discretion, to waive any Event of Default hereunder, by a writing setting forth the terms, conditions and extent of such waiver signed by the Insurer and delivered to the Servicer. Unless such writing expressly provides to the contrary, any waiver so granted shall extend only to the specific event or occurrence which gave rise to the Event of Default so waived and not to any other similar event or occurrence which occurs subsequent to the date of such waiver.

All payments to be made to the Insurer under this Insurance Agreement shall be made to the Insurer in lawful currency of the United States of America in immediately available funds to the account number provided in the Premium Letter before 1:00 p.m. (New York, New York time) on the date when due or as the Insurer shall otherwise direct by written notice to the other parties hereto. Section 6.04. Severability. In the event that any provision of this Insurance Agreement shall be held invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the parties hereto agree that such holding shall not invalidate or render unenforceable any other provision hereof. The parties hereto further agree that the holding by any court of competent jurisdiction that any remedy pursued by any party hereto is unavailable or unenforceable shall not affect in any way the ability of such party to pursue any other remedy available to it.

Section 6.05. Governing Law. This Insurance Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York (without giving effect to the conflict of laws provisions thereof).

Section 6.06. Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) The parties hereto hereby irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York and any court in the State of New York located in the City and County of New York, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action, suit or proceeding brought against it and to or in connection with any of the Operative Documents, the Policy or the Transaction or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agree that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard or determined in such New York state court or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court. The parties hereto agree that a final unappealable judgment in any such action, suit or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties hereto hereby waive and agree not to assert by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise in any such suit, action or proceeding, any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of such courts, that the suit, action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the suit, action or proceeding is improper or that the related documents or the subject matter thereof may not be litigated in or by such courts.

(b) To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties hereto shall not seek and hereby waive the right to any review of the judgment of any such court by any court of any other nation or jurisdiction which may be called upon to grant an enforcement of such judgment.

Such address may be changed by the applicable party or parties by written notice to the other parties hereto. The provision of notice to change the address set forth in Section 6.02 shall constitute notice for purposes of the preceding sentence, unless such notice shall expressly state to the contrary.

(d) Nothing contained in this Insurance Agreement shall limit or affect any party's right to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or to start legal proceedings relating to any of the Operative Documents or the Policy against any other party or its properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

Section 6.07. Consent of the Insurer. In the event that the consent of the Insurer is required under any of the Operative Documents, the determination whether to grant or withhold such consent shall be made by the Insurer in its sole discretion without any implied duty towards any other Person, except as otherwise expressly provided therein.

Section 6.08. Counterparts. This Insurance Agreement may be executed in counterparts by the parties hereto, and all such counterparts shall constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 6.09. Headings. The headings of Articles and Sections and the Table of Contents contained in this Insurance Agreement are provided for convenience only. They form no part of this Insurance Agreement and shall not affect its construction or interpretation.

Section 6.10. Trial by Jury Waived. Each party hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right to a trial by jury in respect of any litigation arising directly or indirectly out of, under or in connection with any of the Operative Documents or the Policy or any of the transactions contemplated thereunder. Each party hereto (A) certifies that no representative, agent or attorney of any party hereto has represented, expressly or otherwise, that it would not, in the event of litigation, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (B) acknowledges that it has been induced to enter into the Operative Documents to which it is a party (or, in the case of the Policy, the Insurer so acknowledges) by, among other things, this waiver.

Section 6.11. (a) Limited Liability. No recourse under any Operative Document or the Underwriting Agreement shall be had against, and no personal liability shall attach to, any officer, employee, director, affiliate or shareholder of any party hereto, as such, by the enforcement of any assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding, by virtue of any statute or otherwise in respect of any of the Operative Documents or the Underwriting Agreement, the Securities or the Policy, it being expressly agreed and understood that each Operative Document, the Policy and the Underwriting Agreement is solely a corporate obligation of each party hereto, and that any and all personal liability, either at common law or in equity, or by statute or constitution, of every such officer, employee, director, affiliate or shareholder for breaches of any party hereto of any obligations under any Operative Document, the Policy or the Underwriting Agreement is hereby expressly waived as a condition of and in consideration for the execution and delivery of this Insurance Agreement.

(b) Limitation of Liability. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, it is expressly understood and agreed by the parties hereto that (a) this Agreement is executed and delivered by Wilmington Trust Company, not individually or personally but solely as Owner Trustee of the Issuer, in the exercise of the powers and authority conferred and vested in it under the Trust Agreement, (b) each of the representations, undertakings and agreements herein made on the part of the Issuer is made and intended not as personal representations, undertakings and agreements by Wilmington Trust Company but is made and intended for the purpose for binding only the Issuer and (c) under no circumstances shall Wilmington Trust Company be personally liable for the payment of any indebtedness or expenses of the Issuer or be liable for the breach or failure of any obligation, representation, warranty or covenant made or undertaken by the Issuer under this Agreement or the other related documents.

Section 6.12. Entire Agreement. This Insurance Agreement and the Policy set forth the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and this Insurance Agreement supersedes and replaces any agreement or understanding that may have existed between the parties prior to the date hereof in respect of such subject matter.

Section 6.13. No Partnership. Nothing in this Insurance Agreement or any other agreement entered into in connection with the Transaction shall be deemed to constitute the Insurer a partner, co-venturer or joint owner of property with any other entity.

The plaintiffs—(i) U.S. Bank National Association, solely in its capacity as indenture trustee (the “Indenture Trustee”) under the Indenture¹ for the benefit of the insurers and holders (“Noteholders”) of the notes issued by GreenPoint Mortgage Funding Trust 2006-HE1 (the “Issuer”), and at the direction of co-plaintiff Syncora Guarantee Inc., formerly known as XL Capital Assurance Inc. (“Syncora”), as Controlling Insurer; (ii) Syncora, as Controlling Insurer, Note Controlling Party and Class Ax Insurer under the Indenture; and (iii) CIFG Assurance North America, Inc. (“CIFG” and, with Syncora, the “Insurers”), as Class Ac Insurer under the Indenture—by their attorneys, Nixon Peabody LLP (for the Indenture Trustee) and Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler LLP (for the Insurers), for their complaint against the defendant, Green-

¹ The “Indenture” is that certain Indenture dated as of August 1, 2006 between GreenPoint Mortgage Funding Trust 2006-HE1, as Issuer, and the Indenture Trustee.

Point Mortgage Funding, Inc. ("GreenPoint"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Capital One Financial Corporation, hereby allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is a breach-of-contract action arising from GreenPoint's blanket failure to comply with the plain and unambiguous terms of two agreements governing its sale of nearly 30,000 residential mortgage loans that it originated. In the Sale Agreements (as defined below), GreenPoint (a) made numerous representations and warranties relating to the attributes of the loans and the policies and practices pursuant to which the loans were originated, underwritten and serviced and (b) agreed either to cure breaches of those representations and warranties that materially and adversely affected the value of the loans or to repurchase the loans at a contractually specified repurchase price. As contemplated by the Sale Agreements, the rights to enforce GreenPoint's commitments were assigned along with the loans to the Indenture Trustee in connection with a transaction involving the issuance of $1.83 billion of securities (the "Notes") that were secured and to be paid down by the cash flows from the loans. Certain payments on the Class Ax Notes and the Class Ac Notes were guaranteed by Syncora and CIFG, respectively.

2. But less than two years after the close of the transaction, the loans began to default at staggering rates, prompting Syncora as the Controlling Insurer to hire a consultant to review the loan documentation for compliance with GreenPoint's representations and warranties. As Syncora informed the Indenture Trustee, an astonishing 963 (or 93%) out of a sample of 1,030 of the loans sold, with a total principal balance of $91.8 million, did not comply with GreenPoint's representations and warranties under the Sale Agreements. The breaches discovered primarily involve an error, omission, misrepresentation, negligence, fraud or similar occurrence in connection with the origination and underwriting of the loans, all of which were defects that GreenPoint explicitly represented did not exist and agreed to remedy if discovered. The results of the sample analysis, together with the severe underperformance of the entire pool of GreenPoint loans, indicate that such breaches were not confined to the sample of loans reviewed, but rather were pervasive. Indeed, slightly more than two years after closing, as of December 31, 2008, approximately $530 million of the loans (28.95% of the original pool balance) had either been charged off as a total loss or were severely delinquent.

3. The Indenture Trustee promptly notified GreenPoint in writing of the breaches identified by Syncora, thereby triggering GreenPoint's extensive remedial obligations under the Sale Agreements. Specifically, the Sale Agreements require GreenPoint to repurchase all of the $1.83 billion of loans that it sold under those agreements upon discovery that it made untrue statements in connection with the sales, a fact that was established upon notice of the breaches identified through the sample analysis. GreenPoint has failed and continues to fail to comply with this explicit obligation, as well as its lesser-included but also explicit obligation of repurchasing the specifically identified breaching loans. GreenPoint's widespread breaches of the representations and warranties that it made in connection with the sale of the loans—as well as its failure to perform its contractually required remedial cure-or-repurchase obligation—constitute material breaches of each of the Sale Agreements as a whole.

4. Accordingly, the Indenture Trustee, acting at the direction of Syncora, as the Controlling Insurer and Note Controlling Party, Syncora, as Class Ax Insurer, and CIFG, as Class Ac Insurer, bring this action to compel the repurchase of all of the loans sold by GreenPoint, including those breaching loans, or, in the alternative, to recover as damages the contractually specified repurchase price for all the loans.

BACKGROUND

A. GreenPoint Built Its Mortgage-Loan Business on Its Assurances Concerning the Quality of Its Mortgage Loans

11. GreenPoint is a wholly owned subsidiary of Capital One Financial Corporation (“Capital One”), which shut down GreenPoint’s mortgage-origination operations in August 2007. GreenPoint had been engaged in the business of originating and selling residential mortgage loans. GreenPoint specialized in so-called "no-doc" and "low-doc" loans, or those for which home buyers provide no or little documentation about their income and assets.² These loans, which had traditionally been designed for prime borrowers with strong credit histories, are also known as "non-conforming" loans because they do not comply with the standards set by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. As discussed below, this non-compliance and limited documentation made GreenPoint's representations and commitments regarding the loans all the more important.

12. Upon information and belief, the profitability of GreenPoint's "originate and sell" business model was a function of its ability to originate a high volume of loans and then convert those loans into cash to fund additional originations. That is, GreenPoint earned fees from its loan originations and generated profit and funds for additional originations by selling the loans for "securitization." The securitizations involved the sale of loans to a trust, which in turn issued securities (or "notes") that were "backed" by the loans. The cash flow generated by the loans was used to pay principal and interest on the notes. The better the quality of the loans (i.e., the greater the likelihood that the borrowers would make principal and interest payments when due), the higher the price GreenPoint could command upon the sale of the loans. But because GreenPoint specialized in the origination of loans with little or no documentation to substantiate the borrowers' credit quality and repayment ability, and because the majority of its loans were originated through a nationwide network of GreenPoint-approved independent mortgage brokers, the success and viability of GreenPoint's business model depended on others' acceptance of its representations concerning the attributes of the loans and its commitments to cover any loss resulting from breaches of those representations. The importance of these representations cannot be overstated: GreenPoint's "originate and sell" model meant that it retained no interest in the performance of the loans after their sale and securitization—except for the continuing validity of the representations that it had made, and the related remedial obligations that it had assumed, in connection with the sales. GreenPoint's representations therefore had to be sufficiently robust to persuade the parties to the securitization that GreenPoint—not they—bore the risk of loss due to deficient or improper origination and underwriting practices or to misleading or incorrect loan attributes.

13. Upon information and belief, from 2003 to 2006, when the securitization at issue occurred, GreenPoint touted the quality of its mortgage loans and origination and underwriting practices to dramatically increase the volume of its loan originations and sales for securitizations. In its parent company's 2003 filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), for example, Thomas S. Johnson, the Chairman of GreenPoint Financial Corp., stated as follows:

I would like to emphasize that our mortgage production growth did not come at the expense of the quality of loans we originated. . . . In addition, I would like to emphasize that all of the loans we originate, including our specialty, or "Alternative A", loans are "A" quality loans. We are not in the business of originating sub-prime loans. . . . *It is difficult to conceive of any reasonable scenario in which GreenPoint would suffer meaningful losses on our loan portfolio.*³

14. The pace and volume of GreenPoint's originations and sales for securitizations escalated following its acquisition by North Fork Bank ("North Fork") in early 2004, especially with respect to the two types of loans—so-called "Alt-A" and "HELOC" loans—that constitute the majority of the loans at issue in this action.⁴ From the outset, North Fork's executives promised to significantly grow GreenPoint's productivity and geographic scope.⁵ Upon information and belief, North Fork's acquisition of GreenPoint therefore increased the pressure on GreenPoint management to expand its loan-origination and loan-selling business. And, indeed, the first year following the acquisition saw a greater than 41% increase in the total dollar volume of GreenPoint's production for Alt-A and HELOC loans.⁶

15. Moreover, North Fork reiterated and reinforced the representations concerning the purported quality of GreenPoint's loan portfolio and protocols, stating that "credit underwriting procedures [at] GreenPoint specifically are excellent" and that "[GreenPoint]'s run by what [we] believe are some of the best managers in the country, they are right up there with Countrywide and others."⁷ Countrywide and its management are currently subject to myriad investigations and actions, some of which have already settled, for having engaged in systematic fraud in connection with the origination of residential mortgage loans.⁸

16. Even when the volume of originations in the industry declined, GreenPoint's executives promised that it would outperform the market.⁹ But, as has only recently been learned through the loan-documentation review conducted by Syncora's consultant, contrary to GreenPoint's representations and assurances, the loans that it was originating and selling for securitizations were not quality loans and were not originated and underwritten pursuant to sound, prudent practices.

17. Capital One, which had acquired GreenPoint, together with North Fork, in late 2006, shut down GreenPoint's mortgage-loan operations in August 2007, less than a year later and only a year after the date of the securitization involved in this action. A GreenPoint spokesperson and Capital One's chairman both offered the same explanation for GreenPoint's demise: tightened underwriting standards in the lending industry.¹⁰ Capital One publicly announced that it would "retain exposure to future repurchases of past GreenPoint production to meet representation and warranty claims."¹¹

18. Neither Capital One nor GreenPoint, however, has repurchased the loans that GreenPoint is contractually required to repurchase to address the harm that GreenPoint's practices have inflicted on the securitization at issue. The Indenture Trustee and the Insurers bring this action to compel GreenPoint to perform its obligations under the Sale Agreements.

B. The Sales and Securitization

19. In two transactions in September 2005 and July 2006 ("Sales"), GreenPoint sold nearly 30,000 residential mortgage loans that it had originated ("Loans") to GMAC Mortgage Corporation ("GMAC"). The Sales were effectuated pursuant to two agreements: a Flow Revolving Credit Loan Purchase and Warranties Agreement dated September 26, 2005

¹⁰ See Jed Moss, Alt-A Mortgage Lender Closes Up Shops, Mortgage Found., June 9, 2007 (citing GreenPoint spokesperson Julie Rakes); Bauerlein, Capital One Shuts Down GreenPoint Mortgage Unit (citing a memo circulated by Capital One Chairman and Chief Executive Richard D. Fairbanks).

("HELOC Sale Agreement") and a Flow Mortgage Loan Purchase and Warranties Agreement dated July 26, 2006 ("Mortgage Loan Sale Agreement") (collectively, "Sale Agreements").

20. The Sale Agreements explicitly contemplated that the Loans would be securitized and used as collateral for notes issued to investors. Section 28 of the Sale Agreements not only authorizes GMAC, as Purchaser, to "convey the [Loans] to one or more securitized trust structures," but requires GreenPoint to "cooperate" with GMAC in connection with any such "Securitization Transfer."

21. In addition, GreenPoint explicitly obligated itself to honor GMAC's rights and remedies under the Sale Agreements (the "Purchaser's Rights and Remedies") regardless of who ultimately acquired them through the assignments necessary to effectuate a contemplated securitization. Section 21 of the Sale Agreements states that the Purchaser's Rights and Remedies "shall bind and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by [GreenPoint] and the Purchaser and the respective successors and assigns of . . . the Purchaser." (Emphasis added.) And Section 21 of the HELOC Sale Agreement, which applies to 95% of the Loans, states that, "in the case of a Securitization Transfer . . . , Purchaser shall have the right to assign its rights under this Agreement into such Securitization Transfer . . . after which the issuer or trustee for the issuer of any such Securitization Transfer . . . shall be deemed to be a Purchaser." (Emphasis added.)

22. As contemplated, the Loans and the Purchaser's Rights and Remedies were transferred into the Issuer, a Delaware statutory trust bearing GreenPoint's name, GreenPoint Mortgage Funding Trust 2006-HE1, and then granted and assigned from the Issuer to the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Insurers and Noteholders, all as part of a securitization transaction that closed on August 28, 2006 (the "Securitization").¹² The transfers were accomplished through a chain of assignments executed within five days of the second GreenPoint-to-GMAC Sale.

23. GMAC initially assigned the Purchaser's Rights and Remedies, together with the Loans, to Lehman Brothers Bank, F.S.B. ("Lehman Bank") through two Assignment, Assumption and Recognition Agreements ("AARs"), one for each of the two Sale Agreements, dated July 28, 2006. Section 6 of the AARs makes clear that Lehman Bank, as "Assignee," "shall become the 'Purchaser' under the [Sale] Agreement[s]." Accordingly, "all representations, warranties and covenants by [GreenPoint] as the 'Seller' thereunder, including, but not limited to, the representations, warranties and covenants to repurchase any [Loan] . . . , shall accrue to [Lehman Bank] by virtue of the [AARs]." AARs § 6.

24. Lehman Bank subsequently assigned these representations, warranties and covenants and the other Purchaser's Rights and Remedies, together with the Loans, to its parent company Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. ("Lehman Holdings"),¹³ which, in turn, assigned them to an affiliated special-purpose entity known as the Depositor, in this case, Structured Asset Securities Corporation ("SASC").¹⁴ Finally, SASC assigned the Purchaser's Rights and Remedies, together with the Loans, to the Issuer, which then granted and assigned the Purchaser's Rights and Remedies, together with the Loans, to the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Insurers and the Noteholders.¹⁵ This is precisely the "Securitization Transfer" contemplated by the Sale Agreements.

¹³ Assignment and Assumption Agreement, dated August 1, 2006.

¹⁴ Mortgage Loan Sale and Assignment Agreement, dated August 1, 2006.

25. Under the Indenture, which effectuated the final step of the assignment process described above, the Insurers are granted various rights with respect to the enforcement of the Indenture Trustee's rights and remedies. First, as noted, the Issuer's grant and assignment of the Loans and the Purchaser's Rights and Remedies to the Indenture Trustee was for the benefit of the Insurers, among others. Section 11.10 of the Indenture explicitly names the Insurers as "third-party beneficiaries to the provisions of this Indenture," a status that entitles the Insurers "to rely upon and directly to enforce such provisions of the Indenture." In addition, Section 5.20 of the Indenture sets forth various "Insurers' Rights Regarding Actions, Proceedings or Investigations." These include the right of the Controlling Insurer "to participate in, to direct the enforcement . . . of, and, at the Controlling Insurer's sole option, to institute . . . any action, proceeding or investigation that could adversely affect the Issuer . . . or the rights or obligations of the Insurers . . . under the related Policy or the Operative Agreements." Indenture § 5.20(a). Syncora is, and at all times since the Securitization has been, the Controlling Insurer under the Indenture, and CIFG would become the Controlling Insurer if certain circumstances were to arise. See id. § 1.01(a). Finally, the Insurance and Indemnity Agreements that Syncora and CIFG separately entered into in connection with the Securitization grant them similar rights to direct the actions of the Indenture Trustee and the enforcement of the Indenture Trustee's rights and remedies.¹⁶

¹⁵ Transfer and Servicing Agreement and Indenture, each dated August 1, 2006.

¹⁶ Under Section 5.02(a)(iii) of the Insurance and Indemnity Agreement dated August 28, 2006 that Syncora entered into with, among others, the Indenture Trustee, Syncora is empowered to "exercise any rights and remedies under the Indenture in accordance with the terms thereof or direct the Indenture Trustee to exercise such remedies in accordance with the terms of the Indenture." Section 5.02(a)(iv) also empowers Syncora to "exercise any rights and remedies under the Transfer and Servicing Agreement ['TSA'],"

26. Accordingly, the Indenture Trustee, at the direction of Syncora and with both Syncora and CIFG, brings this action to exercise and enforce the Purchaser's Rights and Remedies for the benefit of the Insurers and the Noteholders. As discussed further below, these include the right to demand that GreenPoint comply with its clear contractual obligations to repurchase the Loans upon notice that GreenPoint is in breach of one or more of its representations and warranties.

C. GreenPoint's Representations and Warranties
Are the Linchpin of the Sales and Securitization

27. GreenPoint's numerous and broad representations and warranties relating to the Loans and the practices pursuant to which the Loans were originated and underwritten were an inducement to the initial Sales, the ultimate sale of the Loans to the Issuer as part of the Securitization, and every assignment in between, as well as an inducement to the Insurers to issue their insurance policies for the benefit of the Noteholders. In making these representations and warranties, GreenPoint assured the Purchasers and Securitization participants that GreenPoint—not they—would bear the risk of the Loans' non-compliance. The Indenture Trustee and the Insurers and, upon information and belief, the other Securitization participants, relied on GreenPoint's representations and warranties and GreenPoint's assumption of this risk in deciding to participate in the Securitization and the other transactions contemplated by the Sale Agreements and, in the case of the Insurers, in assessing their own risk in issuing their respective insurance policies.

which include in Section 3.03 of that agreement the Indenture Trustee's right to demand from GreenPoint the repurchase of loans upon the breach of its representations and warranties. See TSA § 3.03. CIFG is granted the identical power under Section 5.02(a)(i) of the separate Insurance and Indemnity Agreement dated August 21, 2006.

i. GreenPoint's Representations and Warranties

28. GreenPoint's representations and warranties are contained in Sections 6 and 7 of the Sale Agreements. With respect to each of the Loans, GreenPoint represented and warranted, among other things, that, as of the closing date of the Sales:

- The information set forth in the Loan Schedule is complete, true and correct. (Sale Agreements § 7(a));
- Each Loan at the time it was made complied in all material respects with applicable local, state and federal laws (including, without limitation, usury, truth-in-lending, real estate settlement procedures, consumer-credit protection, equal-credit-opportunity and disclosure laws, predatory- and abusive-lending laws and unfair- and deceptive-practices laws). (Sale Agreements § 7(g));
- The documents, instruments and agreements submitted for loan underwriting were not falsified and contain no untrue statement of material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the information and statements therein not misleading. (Sale Agreements § 7(k));
- No fraud was committed in connection with the origination of a Loan. (Sale Agreements § 7(k));
- Each Loan was underwritten in accordance with GreenPoint's underwriting guidelines in effect at the time such Loan was originated. (HELOC Sale Agreement § 7(u); Mortgage Loan Sale Agreement § 7(v));
- No error, omission, misrepresentation, negligence, fraud or similar occurrence with respect to a Loan has taken place on the part of any person including without limitation the Mortgagor, any appraiser, any builder or developer or any other party involved in the origination of the Loan; no predatory or deceptive lending practices, including, without limitation, the extension of credit without regard to the ability of the Mortgagor to repay and the extension of credit that has no apparent benefit to the Mortgagor, were employed in the origination of the Loan. (HELOC Sale Agreement § 7(tt); Mortgage Loan Sale Agreement § 7(yy));
- The origination and collection practices used with respect to a Loan have been in accordance with Accepted Servicing Practices, in all respects in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations and in all material respects proper and prudent in the mortgage origination and servicing business. (HELOC Sale Agreement § 7(ff); Mortgage Loan Sale Agreement § 7(hh)); and
- The methodology used in underwriting the extension of credit for each Loan employs objective mathematical principles which relate the Mortgagor's income, assets and liabilities to the proposed payment and such underwriting methodology does not rely on the extent of the Mortgagor's equity in the collateral as the principal determining factor in approving such credit extension. Such underwriting methodology confirmed that at the time of origination (application/approval) the Mortgagor had a reasonable ability to make timely payments on the Loan. (HELOC Sale Agreement § 7(ccc)).

29. "[A]s a condition to the consummation of" the Sales and any other transactions "contemplated by" the Sale Agreements (i.e., the Securitization), GreenPoint also represented and warranted, among other things, that, as of the closing date of the Sales:

[n]either this Agreement nor any statement, report or other document furnished or to be furnished pursuant to this Agreement or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby contains any untrue statement of fact or omits to state a fact necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading.

(Sale Agreements § 6(h)).

30. Among the documents furnished in connection with the Securitization was the Prospectus Supplement (together with the underlying Prospectus, the "ProSupp") delivered to prospective investors pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The ProSupp contains additional assurances made by GreenPoint about its loan-origination and loan-underwriting practices. The ProSupp includes, for example, an assurance to prospective investors that the Loans were underwritten and issued in a prudent fashion and therefore were unlikely to default.¹⁷ Specifically, the ProSupp states that "the GreenPoint underwriting guidelines are applied to evaluate the prospective borrower's credit standing and repayment ability and the value and adequacy of the mortgaged property as collateral." ProSupp at S-38. The ProSupp further specifies that, "[a]s part of its evaluation of potential borrowers, GreenPoint generally requires a description of the borrower's income." Id. at S-39.

¹⁷ An identical description appears in an exhibit to the August 1, 2006 Mortgage Loan Sale and Assignment Agreement between Lehman Holdings and SASC.

31. With respect to its “no-doc” or “low-doc” loan-origination programs, GreenPoint assured investors that the borrowers participating in such programs had “credit histories that demonstrate an established ability to repay indebtedness in a timely fashion.” Id. GreenPoint also claimed to conduct a “quality control review” of a sample of the loans that it acquired from “approved correspondent lenders.” Id.

32. To reinforce the absolute nature of its commitment to bear the risk in the event that any of the Loans did not comply with the foregoing representations and warranties, GreenPoint explicitly agreed in the Sale Agreements that a representation and warranty made to the best of its knowledge, if proven to be inaccurate, would be deemed breached “notwithstanding [GreenPoint]’s lack of knowledge with respect to the substance of such representation and warranty.” Sale Agreements § 8(b).

ii. GreenPoint’s Cure-or-Repurchase Obligation

33. GreenPoint’s assumption of the risk that its representations and warranties would prove inaccurate also included an obligation to cure any such breaches or to repurchase Loans with respect to which breaches had been or are identified. Section 8 of the Sale Agreements provides in relevant part as follows:

Within 60 days of the earlier of either discovery by or notice to [GreenPoint] of any Breach of a representation or warranty, [GreenPoint] shall use its best efforts promptly to cure such Breach in all material respects and, if such Breach cannot be cured, [GreenPoint] shall, at the Purchaser’s option, repurchase such [breaching loan(s)] at the Repurchase Price.¹⁸

Like GreenPoint’s representations and warranties, its cure-or-repurchase obligation is broad, (i) arising upon discovery or notice and (ii) extending to the breach of any representation or warranty that materially and adversely affects the value of a given Loan, the interest of any Purchaser, or the interest of any Purchaser in the Loan. See Sale Agreements § 8. The breaches at issue, which involve errors, omissions, misrepresentations, negligence, fraud or similar occurrences in connection with the origination and underwriting of the Loans, materially increased the risk of loss associated with, and decreased the value of, the Loans.

34. And if “a Breach shall involve any representation or warranty set forth in Section 6” of the Sale Agreements, GreenPoint’s remedial obligation is even broader, reflecting the seriousness of the representations set forth in that section: If “such Breach cannot be cured within 60 days of the earlier of either discovery by or notice to [GreenPoint] of such Breach, all of the [Loans] shall, at the Purchaser’s option, be repurchased by [GreenPoint] at the Repurchase Price.” Sale Agreements § 8 (emphasis added). As explained above, the Indenture Trustee, as assignee of the Issuer, is the “Purchaser” for the purposes of these provisions and has exercised its option to demand repurchase at the contractually specified “Repurchase Price.”

D. GreenPoint’s Breaches of Its Representations and Warranties

35. In early 2008, Syncora informed the Indenture Trustee that 963 of the Loans (“Breaching Loans”) purchased by the Issuer and assigned to the Indenture Trustee and with a total principal balance of $91.8 million did not comply with GreenPoint’s representations and warranties. These Breaching Loans represented 93% of a sample of 1,030 Loans that had been re-underwritten. The Breaching Loans contained one or, in most cases, more than one defect that constituted a breach of one of more of the numerous representations and warranties made by GreenPoint in the Sale Agreements, including:

- a) pervasive misrepresentations and/or negligence with respect to the statement of the income, assets or employment of the borrower (see, e.g., Sale Agreements § 7(a), (k), (tt));
- b) misrepresentations of the borrower’s intent to occupy the property as the borrower’s residence and subsequent failure to so occupy the property (id.);

- c) inflated and fraudulent appraisal values (id.); and
- d) pervasive violations of GreenPoint's own underwriting guidelines and prudent mortgage-lending practices, including loans made to borrowers (i) who made unreasonable claims as to their income, (ii) with multiple, unverified social-security numbers, (iii) with credit scores below the required minimum, (iv) with debt-to-income and/or loan-to-value ratios above the allowed maximum or (v) with relationships to GreenPoint or other non-arm's-length relationships (see, e.g., HELOC Sale Agreement § 7(u), (tt); Mortgage Loan Sale Agreement § 7(v), (yy)).

36. The large number and seriousness of the breaches identified in the re-underwriting of the sample of Loans not only demonstrate deficiencies in GreenPoint's loan-underwriting practices with respect to the Breaching Loans, but also suggest a pervasive pattern of malfeasance, misconduct and/or negligence in connection with GreenPoint's loan-origination practices as a whole, and therefore call into question the origination and underwriting of all of the Loans sold to the Issuer and assigned to the Indenture Trustee.

37. A finding of prevalent underwriting failure and fraud in the origination of the Loans is further suggested by the remarkably poor performance of the Loans following the Securitization. As of December 31, 2008, the Securitization had experienced cumulative losses of more than $387 million. Nearly 29% of the Loans either have been written off by the Issuer as total losses or are severely delinquent. The Securitization's performance has been so poor that it cannot be explained merely by adverse conditions in the housing market. This deterioration parallels that of GreenPoint itself, which, as noted, saw its mortgage-origination operations shut down in August 2007.

38. Numerous borrowers and former GreenPoint employees have recently sued the company and made similar allegations of fraud and other pervasive failures in its origination and underwriting practices. Such actions include a "whistleblower" action filed in June of last year by a former senior underwriter, who alleged, among other things, that GreenPoint had engaged in fraudulent and other unlawful activities by forcing the approval of mortgage-loan applications containing fraudulent information or by approving applications after the underwriter had either denied such applications or made approval contingent upon obtaining additional borrower documentation.¹⁹ Multiple individual borrowers and a class of borrowers have also sued GreenPoint within approximately the last year and a half, alleging, among other things, discriminatory and predatory lending practices, fraudulent loan-origination practices based on misstated or overstated income and/or employment status, violations of the Truth in Lending Act, violations of federal anti-kickback laws and elder abuse.²⁰ During that same time period, the Attorney General of the State of New York had also been investigating GreenPoint for discriminatory lending practices. GreenPoint paid $1 million in July of last year to settle the State's charges against it, and two New York mortgage brokers that had worked with GreenPoint agreed earlier this year to pay an additional $665,000 in restitution to approximately 455 minority borrowers.²¹ These numerous lawsuits and investigations only further suggest that GreenPoint engaged in a pattern of fraudulent and otherwise improper lending practices fraught with severe underwriting deficiencies.

39. By making untrue representations, warranties and other statements pertaining to the Loans and the practices pursuant to which the Loans were underwritten, originated and serviced, GreenPoint breached its representation and warranty in Section 6(h) of the Sale

Agreements that “[n]either this Agreement nor any statement, report or other document furnished or to be furnished pursuant to this Agreement or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby contains any untrue statement of fact or omits to state a fact necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading.” These breaches entitle the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Insurers and the Noteholders, to substantial remedies, including demanding, as it has, that GreenPoint repurchase all of the Loans.

E. GreenPoint’s Willful Refusal to Comply with Its Contractual Cure-or-Repurchase Obligation

40. By letter dated March 14, 2008 (“First Breach Notice”), the Indenture Trustee notified GreenPoint of breaches of various of its representations and warranties in the Sale Agreements with respect to approximately 655 Loans in the re-underwritten sample. The Indenture Trustee requested that GreenPoint comply with Section 8 of the Sale Agreements and either cure the breaches or repurchase the Breaching Loans.

41. GreenPoint did not respond until June 16, 2008, more than three months later, when it refused to cure any of the identified breaches or repurchase any of the Breaching Loans. GreenPoint did not offer any tenable justification for its blanket rejection of its contractual obligations. To the contrary, its objections sound in bad faith. GreenPoint asserted, for example, that the Indenture Trustee had “unreasonably delayed” notifying GreenPoint of the breached representations and warranties. There is no support for that proposition. The Indenture Trustee provided timely notice and demand upon discovery of the Breaching Loans. It is GreenPoint’s delay in complying with its express contractual obligations that was and continues to be unreasonable and prejudicial to the Indenture Trustee’s, as well as the Insurers’ and the Noteholders’, interests.

42. By letter dated July 9, 2008 ("Second Breach Notice" and, together with the First Breach Notice, the "Breach Notices"), the Indenture Trustee notified GreenPoint of breaches of various of its representations and warranties in the Sale Agreements with respect to an additional group of approximately 308 Loans in the re-underwritten sample. The Indenture Trustee again requested that GreenPoint comply with Section 8 of the Sale Agreements and either cure the breaches or repurchase the Breaching Loans. To date, GreenPoint has not responded to the Second Breach Notice.

43. Finally, by letter dated December 9, 2008 ("Breach Clarification"), the Indenture Trustee clarified that the breaches that it had previously identified in the Breach Notices necessarily also constituted breaches of Section 6(h) of the Sale Agreements and, therefore, required GreenPoint to repurchase not only the Breaching Loans, but all of the Loans. GreenPoint responded to the Breach Clarification in a letter dated January 26, 2009 by again rejecting the Indenture Trustee's requests and failing to comply in any manner with GreenPoint's express contractual obligations.

44. In sum, despite receipt of the Breach Notices and the Breach Clarification, GreenPoint has not cured any of the breaches identified in those letters. GreenPoint therefore must repurchase all of the Loans, including the Breaching Loans. See Sale Agreements § 8.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Contract – Representations and Warranties)

45. The Indenture Trustee and the Insurers repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 44 above as if fully set forth herein.

46. The Sale Agreements are valid and binding contracts between the parties thereto and their successors and assigns.

47. GreenPoint is a party to the Sale Agreements.

48. The Issuer is the ultimate assignee of the Purchaser's Rights and Remedies against GreenPoint under the Sale Agreements, which Purchaser's Rights and Remedies have been granted and assigned to, and may (and, at the direction of Syncora, must) be exercised and enforced by, the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Insurers and the Noteholders.

49. The Indenture Trustee has consistently and timely performed its obligations under the Sale Agreements.

50. By making untrue representations and warranties and statements pertaining to the Loans and the practices pursuant to which the Loans were underwritten, originated and serviced, GreenPoint breached both Sections 6 and 7 of the Sale Agreements, including, but not limited to, the specific representations and warranties that are both set forth therein and identified in the Breach Notices and the Breach Clarification.

51. The breaches identified in the Breach Notices and the Breach Clarification materially and adversely affected the value of the Breaching Loans and the interests of the Issuer, the Indenture Trustee, the Insurers and the Noteholders.

52. As a result of GreenPoint's breaches of representations and warranties contained in Sections 6 and 7 of the Sale Agreements and identified in the Breach Notices and the Breach Clarification, the Issuer, the Insurer and the Noteholders have suffered irreparable injury and, unless the Court orders GreenPoint to specifically perform its contractual obligations to repurchase all of the Loans, including the Breaching Loans, the Issuer, the Insurer and the Noteholders will continue to suffer irreparable injury for which they have no adequate remedy at law.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Contract – The Cure-or-Repurchase Obligation)

53. The Indenture Trustee and the Insurers repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 52 above as if fully set forth herein.

54. The Sale Agreements are valid and binding contracts between the parties thereto and their successors and assigns.

55. GreenPoint is a party to the Sale Agreements.

56. The Issuer is the ultimate assignee of the Purchaser's Rights and Remedies against GreenPoint under the Sale Agreements, which Purchaser's Rights and Remedies have been granted and assigned to, and may (and, at the direction of Syncora, must) be exercised and enforced by, the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Insurers and the Noteholders.

57. The Indenture Trustee has consistently and timely performed its obligations under the Sale Agreements.

58. By rejecting the Indenture Trustee's demands that GreenPoint repurchase all of the Loans or, at a minimum, cure the breaches identified in the Breach Notices or repurchase the Breaching Loans, GreenPoint has materially breached its obligations under Section 8 of the Sale Agreements.

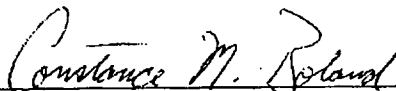

59. GreenPoint's material breaches of Section 8 of the Sale Agreements were and continue to be willful and have damaged and are continuing to damage the Issuer, the Insurers and the Noteholders in an amount to be determined at trial.

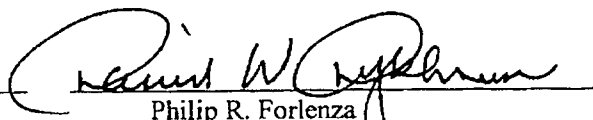

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Indenture Trustee and the Insurers respectfully pray for the following relief:

- A. For an Order compelling GreenPoint to comply with its obligations under Section 8 of the Sale Agreements and repurchase all of the Loans, including the Breaching Loans, at the Repurchase Price, as that term is defined in the Sale Agreements;
- B. For an award of damages, including an amount equivalent to the Repurchase Price of all of the Loans, including the Breaching Loans, as well as any other damages to be proven at trial for GreenPoint's willful material breaches of the Sale Agreements;
- C. For an award of compensatory damages and/or reimbursement, together with interest, court costs, disbursements, attorneys' fees and other expenses;
- D. For prejudgment interest; and
- E. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
